On-Line/Internet Services: User Obligations and Responsibilities

1. The student, in whose name an online services account is issued, is responsible for its proper use at all times. An account will be issued only after the student has signed an Acceptable Use Agreement. Students shall keep personal account numbers, home addresses, and telephone numbers private. They shall use the system only under their own account number.
2. Students shall use the district's system responsibly for educational purposes.
3. Students shall not access, post, submit, publish, or display harmful or inappropriate matter that is threatening, obscene, disruptive, or sexually explicit, or that could be construed as harassment or disparagement of others based on their race/ethnicity, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion or political beliefs.
4. Students shall not disclose, use, or disseminate personal identification information about themselves or others when using electronic mail, chat rooms, or other forms of direct electronic communication. Personal information includes the student's name, address, telephone number, Social Security number, or other individually identifiable information.
5. Students shall not use the system to encourage the use of drugs, alcohol, or tobacco, nor shall they promote unethical practices or any activity prohibited by law or Board policy.
6. Copyrighted material shall not be placed on the system without the author's permission. Students may download copyrighted material for their use only.
7. Students must obtain teacher approval before using AI tools for school projects and assignments and avoid sharing personal information without authorization.
8. Students shall not intentionally upload, download, or create computer viruses and/or maliciously attempt to harm or destroy district equipment or materials or manipulate the data of any other user, including so-called "hacking."
9. Students shall not read other users' electronic mail or files. They shall not attempt to interfere with other users' ability to send or receive electronic mail, nor shall they attempt to delete, copy, modify, or forge other users' mail.
10. Students shall report any security problem or misuse of the services to the teacher or principal.

On-Line/Internet Services: User Obligations and Responsibilities

1. Students shall not copy software owned by the District.
2. Students shall not download and/or install personal software on District equipment.
3. Students shall not connect personally owned peripheral devices to any District equipment without prior authorization by the Superintendent's designee.
4. Students shall not vandalize District equipment.
5. Students shall follow District procedures for checking out portable devices for educational purposes.

Inappropriate use of Internet Electronic Information Services can result in the immediate termination of access privileges. This action can be taken without warning.

Responsibility Contract

The Governing Board of Palm Springs Unified School District recognizes the educational value of using Internet Electronic Information Services for communication and information access and encourages the use of such sources to enhance student learning. The Governing Board also recognizes that access to District Internet electronic information services is a privilege and all users must agree to use the services responsibly. As a user, I understand and will abide by the District's rules and regulations as well as any specific site guidelines for the Palm Springs Unified School District's electronic information services. I understand that any violation of these rules, regulations and guidelines is unethical and may constitute a criminal offense. Should I commit any violation, my access privileges may be revoked and District or school disciplinary action and/or other appropriate legal action may be taken.
